

A Passing Shower, oil on hardboard, 20"x20"

"Although my paintings present the landscape,
I do not paint nature in an attempt to duplicate what the eye sees.
I explore landscape imagery for its expressive potential,
its unique emotional language.
I seek to discover the poetry in a solitary tree or a passing cloud and to communicate that poetry in paint."

- Gerard Erley

 long view gallery
presents in the city

Gerard Erley

Poetic Landscape
March 10 - April 2

Gerard Erley is a native to Illinois who has also spent time living in South Carolina. He has had solo shows in Illinois as well as up and down the east coast from North Carolina to Florida, South Carolina, and Georgia. His award winning oil paintings are part of public, private and corporate collections both in the United States and abroad.

Artist Reception
Saturday, March 10 6-8pm

www.longviewgallery.com

Long View Gallery
1302 Ninth St, NW
Washington, DC 20001